

BAY SHORE'S HORSE SHOW

Mrs. R. F. Carman's Donner and Blitzen Win in Harness Class.

MRS. GERKEN'S PAIR SECOND

Decision Is Popular with Spectators—

Mrs. Hitchcock's Jumpers Take Two Ribbons.

Special to The New York Times.

The victory of Mrs. R. F. Carman's well-known pair of black highsteppers, Donner and Blitzen, over Mrs. John Gerken's prize-winning chestnut pair, Newsboy and Shopgirl, in the class for pairs of harness horses over 14.1 and not exceeding 15.1 hands, was the feature of the second day's judging at the fourth annual Bay Shore horse show at Oakwood Driving Park, Bay Shore, L. I., yesterday. The two beautifully matched pairs were sent around the ring again and again before the judges made their decision, but when the blue ribbon was finally awarded to the Carman pair the spectators manifested their approval of the decision with an outburst of applause which lasted several minutes.

Mrs. Carman also won a blue ribbon with Blitzen in the basket phaeton class, which made her the principal winner of the day. Mrs. Gerken won with Newsboy and Shopgirl in the runabout class, and Mrs. J. B. M. Grosvenor won with Roseberry in the single harness horse class. In the jumping class Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., took first with Kingsman and fourth with Black Friar.

Despite the gloomy and threatening weather, the attendance was large and representative of south side society. Rain began to fall in the middle of the afternoon, and the last seven classes were judged in a steady downpour. Summary:

$50,000 RACE FOR TO-DAY.

Waterboy, The Picket, and Five Others

in the Great Republic at Saratoga.

The most valuable race of the Eastern turf season, the $50,000 Great Republic Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at one mile and a quarter, will be run to-day at the Saratoga Springs, and in spite of the absence from the list of entries of several famous horses engaged in the stake, the contest gives promise of being one of the great races of the season. Hermis, said to be seriously amiss, Lord of the Vale and Bryn Mawr are the most notable of the absent horses. Waterboy, the champion of last season, and The Picket, winner of the Brooklyn Handicap, are the most conspicuous of the seven named to run for the big prize, while the fast three-year-old Delhi, and the four-year-old Aceful, recently returned to winning form, add interest to the struggle. The conditions of the race, with the horses announced to run and the jockeys who will ride, follow:

The Great Republic Stakes of $500,000, for three-year-olds and upward, penalties and allowances; one mile and a quarter.

	Years.	Pounds.
Waterboy	5	129	Lyne
The Picket	4	126	Helgeson

Knight Errant	4	111	J. Martin
Gray Friar	3	108	T. Burns
Mercury	3	98	Hildebrand

WILL RUN FOR ST. LOUIS TRIP,

Eight Best Men in Race to Go to World's Fair for Big Event.

Eight local distance runners will be sent to St. Louis at the expense of the Metropolitan Association of the Amateur Athletic Union to represent that association in the Marathon race in the Olympic games on Aug. 30. A special five-mile race will be put on at the junior championship games at Celtic Park on Aug. 13, and the first eight men who cross the line at the finish will be sent to St. Louis. There will be no entry fee charged for this event, and entries may be made on the grounds on the day of the race.

The Chairman of the Championship Committee of the Metropolitan Association makes the announcement that every man who enters this race must do so with the distinct understanding that in the event of his winning a place on the team he will be prepared to go to St. Louis for competition on Aug. 30. The distance of the Marathon race at St. Louis is 40 kilometers, and a special prize will be given to the winner in the cup given by David R. Francis, President of the World's Fair. The race is the principal event at the Olympic games, and a large foreign delegation will compete against the pick of American athletes, so that the strongest team possible must be gathered to compete against the foreigners.

Among the probable competitors in the special race on Aug. 13; M. Spring and A. E. Zeigler, Pastime A. C.; A. Machecknie, F. Lorz, F. Rodgers, and S. A. Mellor, Jr., of the Mohawk A. C.; Robert Todd and Charles Maher, New West Side A. C.; J. Lonergan and T. J. Kennedy, National A. C.; W. G. Frank, Harvey Cohn, John Joyce, and G. Bonhag, Greater New York Irish A. A.; F. P. Devlin, F. A. Rodgers, M. McGarry, and B. Mann, Mott Haven A. C., and E. P. Carr, Xavier A. A.
